

FIRE FIGHTER'S EDUCATION DAY
SPONSORED BY THE LAKESHORE FIRE FIGHTER'S
MARCH 21, 2012
GREEN BAY LABOR TEMPLE
1570 ELIZABETH STREET
9:00 - 5:00

A day-long educational opportunity is being offered to all IAFF fire fighters on Wednesday, March 21st at the Green Bay Labor Temple. A diverse class listing is being offered at $25 per IAFF Member. Quality instructors will be informing and enlightening you on some of today's most serious issues. The class schedule will be:

9:00 - Colleen Hintz, City of Green Bay Safety Director, entitled Understanding Worker's Compensation Data: It Means More Than You May Think

10:00 - Judy Lackas from the Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS) - Your Benefits and Retirement

12:00 – Lunch (on your own)

1:00 - Atty. Tim Hawks, a labor attorney with the Hawks, Quindel Law Firm, will present a class on Social Media: Staying Out of Trouble

2:00 - Mike Wos, Sec-Treasurer of IAFF Local 316 and IAFF Field Rep for the 5th District, will present a class on Interpreting A Municipal Financial Analysis

3:00 - Patrick Kilbane, IAFF 5th District Field Service Rep will present on Grievance Arbitration

4:00 – John Kiel, The Law Office of John B. Kiel, LLC will present Weingarten, Garrity, and Loudermill rights as they relate to fire fighters. As well as how Acts 10/22 impact Fire Fighters