

The newly formed Lakeshore Caucus invites you!

Education for labor

March 21, 2012

9:00 – 5:00

Green Bay Labor Temple

1570 Elizabeth St. Green Bay, WI

A day-long educational opportunity is being offered to all IAFF fire fighters on Wednesday, March 21st at the Green Bay Labor Temple. A diverse class listing is being offered at cost of $25 per attendant, with quality instructors informing and enlightening you on some of today’s most serious issues. Included in the class offerings will be:

A class presented by Colleen Hintz, City of Green Bay Safety Director, entitled Understanding Worker’s Compensation Data: It Means More Than You May Think

A class presented by Judy Lackas from the Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS) - Your Benefits and Retirement with Q & A

Atty. Tim Hawks, a labor attorney with the Hawks, Quindel Law Firm, will present a class on Social Media: Staying out of Trouble

Mike Wos, Sec-Treasurer of IAFF Local 316 and IAFF Field Rep for the 5th District. Will present a class on Interpreting a Municipal Financial Analysis

Patrick Kilbane, IAFF 5th District Field Service Rep will present on Grievance Arbitration

John Kiel, a labor attorney with The Law Office of John B. Kiel, LLC will present Weingarten, Garrity, and Loudermill rights as they relate to fire fighters.

(Please cut and return)

Names of attendants: _____

Local Number: _____

Please return this form and a $25 registration fee per attendant to:
(No class fee for Lakeshore members)

Green Bay Fire Fighters Local 141
1570 Elizabeth St
Green Bay, WI 54301